The system shall provide a notification method:

- that alert the residents if they have received a package or a letter
- editable by the doorman

The system shall include a section where the administrator can upload the files of the condominium:

- personal data of residents
- reunion verbal
- accounting register
- allows the administrator to show it to the resident if they need to consult them

The system shall provide a code-based login method:

- managed by the administrator of the condominium
- that will take you to your condominium profile
- It let the administrator to check if you are a resident and allows him to accept or decline the request